Program Notes:

1* ENC 1101C can be taken in place of ENC 1101. Please speak with your advisor for more information.

2* See the General Education Requirements at FSCJ Catalog.

3* See the professional elective options on the next page or in the catalog at fscj.edu/2389.

4* Students must request permission from the internship professor or Program Manager to enroll in the internship. An approved elective may be substituted for this course if students have verifiable, related work experience of not less than 12 consecutive months, have submitted their portfolio and have met the criteria of the review board.

- This program cannot be completed entirely online.
- The recommended roadmap above presumes that the "1st Term" is a fall start term. Please note that many of the Interior Design courses are offered once per academic year. It is highly recommended that students speak with the program manager for advising. Courses in this program may be offered a strategic sequence for completion.
- TAR2120 has been replaced with IND1404C. Student enrolled prior to Fall 2019 will not be negatively impacted.

CAREER OPTIONS

With an Associate in Science degree in Interior Design Technology, graduates qualify for entry-level positions with interior design studios, architectural firms, furniture and design showrooms and other businesses specializing in interior furnishings. Types of employment include interior designer, design assistant, sales representatives, CAD operator, interior decorator, merchandise displayer and space planner. Designers are needed to respond to consumer expectations that the interiors of homes and businesses meet certain conditions, such as being environmentally friendly or more easily accessible.

Florida State College at Jacksonville does not discriminate against any person on the basis of race, disability, color, ethnicity, national origin, religion, gender, age, sex, sexual orientation/expression, marital status, veteran status, pregnancy or genetic information in its programs, activities and employment.
